

Curriculum Vitae

Vincenzo MILITELLO

Full professor of Criminal Law at the Palermo University (Law School). His publications in different languages cover various general and special criminal law topics, with particular interest for European and comparative perspective: Negligence, Recklessness, Causality, Self-defence, Sentencing, Penal protection of life and property, Offences against the State, Transnational Organized Crime, Illicit trades in the Mediterranean sea, Corporate criminal liability; Private Bribery, Relations between criminal theory and criminal policy, Functions of criminal sanction, Principles of international criminal law. Co-director of the Books series Quaderni di diritto penale comparato, internazionale ed europeo. Member of the editorial boards of international and national journals: e.g. Goldammer's Archiv für Strafrecht, Revista portuguesa de ciencia criminal; Rivista trimestrale diritto penale dell'economia. Principal Investigator of European and International Projects: e.g. European Joint Project on Transnational Organized Crime (Falcone-programm EU), IFO - Illegal Flow Observations, GLODERS-Global Dimensions of Extortion Racket Systems, NESMeS- The New Era of Smuggling on Mediterranean Sea. Lecturer at international workshops and meetings in different countries. Fellow of Alexander v. Humboldt Stiftung (1995-1996) and EU-Jean Monnet programme (2015-2022). Since 2010 Honorary Consul of the Federal Republic of Germany for Central and Western Sicily.

Palermo, 26.1.2024