

International PhD in Management – Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna

The selection process for the PhD in Management includes a written exam.

The written exam will take place in Pisa, Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna -Aula Magna Storica, on 25th May at 9.00 a.m..

The written exam will last 3 hours.

Four themes will be extracted from a total of twelve themes from four thematic areas.

Candidates will be able to choose one theme after the extraction.

The four thematic areas are the following:

- General management
- Innovation and Technology management
- Health management
- Sustainability management

The texts can be written in either Italian or English.

Regarding preparation for the four thematic areas, candidates can usefully read the most diffused manuals on the different topics. They also should be aware of the most recent business dynamics which are relevant for the Italian and the global economy and of the research output of the Institute of Management (<http://www.sssup.it/Istituto-di-Management>).
