

Comparative Health Law: Bioethics, Technology and Policy

Sunday, May 15—Saturday, May 28, 2016 (3 credits)

Sunday, May 15—Thursday, June 8, 2016 (5 credits)

Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna | Pisa, Italy

The Summer Program in Pisa is an intensive course of study that aims to introduce students to the issues that surround the treatment of health law around the world. With a focus on bioethics, technology, medical malpractice, and health policy and taught by experts in the field, the course offers students a one-of-a-kind opportunity to immerse themselves in this ever-growing field of law. Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna is a top research university located in the heart of the charming Tuscany region of Italy.

Participants earn 3 or 5 credits by taking courses taught by Professors Janet Dolgin and Giovanni Comandé.

Application Deadline: Friday, April 22, 2016

For more information, please contact Steven C. Richman, Senior Director of Global Initiatives, at 516-463-4547 or internationalprograms@hofstra.edu.

For a program application and more information, please visit

law.hofstra.edu/Pisa